

Meet the Violet Digital Support App

On-demand support and security services for your home network!

Features

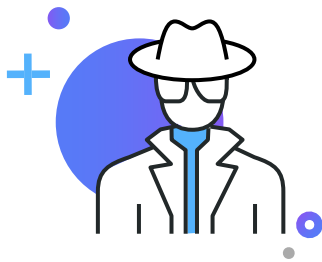

Remote Power

Reboot the power of certain devices to solve a problem with your smart home in 1-tap.

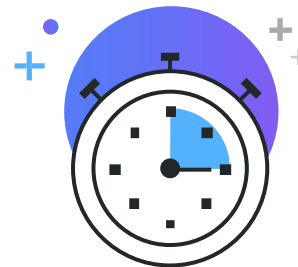

Parental Control

A simple and easy to use parental control, Violet lets you block and unblock devices from accessing your network

Network Security

Detect and block potential intruders from accessing your network

Internet Speed

see how fast your internet connection is performing.

Home Presence Detection

Violet alerts you when new devices, family and guests join and leave your network so you can always visualize what is happening at your home.

Request Support

In 1-tap request support from your custom AV installer to get help for a problem with your smart home technology faster than ever.